

2026 Clean Commute Day Scavenger Hunt

Challenge Sheet

Take the spirit of clean commuting all around town and find different community elements related to Durango and clean commuting. For each challenge you complete you will get an entry to the raffle at the afterparty. Participants will be required to bring a completed challenge sheet and photo evidence with them to the afterparty to verify completion and receive their entries.

Raffle prizes from our generous partners will include backpacks from Osprey Packs, a tote and shirt from Alpacka Rafts, drink mix from Tailwind Nutrition, and tickets to this year's San Juan Brewfest.

Complete all of the challenges to be entered to win VIP Tickets to the San Juan Brew Fest this summer!

Challenges:

- ☐ Find a painted bike lane
 - Snap a photo of an on-street bike lane in Durango which is delineated by paint only.
 - Suggestion: grab a photo of you or someone pretending to ride a bike stencil in a bike lane
- ☐ Find a protected bike lane (hint: there is only 1 stretch...for now)
 - Snap a photo of an on-street bike lane in Durango which is separated with physical barriers.
- ☐ Find a sharrow
 - Snap a photo of a "sharrow" on a Durango street. These are the on-street painted symbols of bikes, often with arrows, meant to remind road users of the presence of bicycle riders and their right to use of the road.
- ☐ Find a HAWK (High-intensity Activated CrossWalk) beacon
 - Snap a photo of a HAWK beacon in Durango. These beacons resemble traffic lights but are actually pedestrian crossings that can be activated by a person walking and act to stop traffic and give a person crossing the street the right-of-way.
 - Suggestion: grab a photo pretending to be a bird while using a HAWK beacon in Durango
- ☐ Find an RRFB (rectangular rapid flashing beacon)
 - Snap a photo of an RRFB in Durango. These beacons, also frequently called flashing crosswalks, consist of yellow light-up signs which flash when a person activates them and alerts motorists to the presence of people crossing the street at a crosswalk.

□ Find a shared use path

- Snap a photo of a shared use path in Durango. These paths often resemble very wide sidewalks and are intended to be a space shared by non-motorized transportation uses such as people walking, biking, or rolling that is separated from car traffic.
 - Suggestion: make a quick video sharing a fun fact on the shared use path

□ Find NON-code conforming bicycle parking

- Visit section 4-5-3-4 of the City of Durango's Land Use and Development Code (LUDC) to review bicycle parking standards and snap a photo of bicycle parking you find in town that DOES NOT meet these guidelines.

□ Find code conforming bicycle parking

- Visit section 4-5-3-4 of the City of Durango's Land Use and Development Code (LUDC) to review bicycle parking standards and snap a photo of bicycle parking you find in town that meets these guidelines.

□ Ride a Durango Transit Bus

- Snap a photo of you riding a bus in Durango. As a reminder, Durango Transit is FREE for the summer! Bonus points if you thank your driver.

□ Find a curb extension

- Snap a photo of a curb extension on a Durango Street. These elements, also often called bulb-outs, are places at intersections where sidewalks and curbs are extended in order to shorten crossing distance for people walking, improve visibility of people walking to drivers, and slow down drivers who are turning. Bonus points if your photo includes you smelling flowers in a curb extension!

□ Find your favorite public art

- Find your favorite piece of public art in Durango along your commute route; it could be a mural, statue, sculpture, etc.

□ Favorite Proposed Multimodal Project

- Review the City of Durango's Multimodal Transportation Plan (which can be found at GetAroundDurango.com) and tell us which project identified on pages 39-40 is most important to you and why.

- ---

- Bonus points: email your favorite proposed multimodal project feedback to multimodal@durangoco.gov to be used for future justification for multimodal projects!

- ☐ Sign up for Way to Go Durango, join the Clean Commute Day Challenge on the platform, and log at least 1 commute from June 10 - 17.
- ☐ Visit the Downtown station (corner of Main Ave and E 7th St) on Clean Commute Day
 - Snap a photo of you at the station
 - Bonus points for getting a shirt and wearing it to the afterparty!
- ☐ Visit the CDOT station (Animas City Park) on Clean Commute Day
 - Snap a photo of you at the station
- ☐ Visit the Three-Springs Station at Bear's General (65 Mercado St #119) on Clean Commute Day
 - Snap a photo of you at the station
- ☐ Visit the Durango Natural Foods Co-op station (575 E 8th Ave) on Clean Commute Day
 - Snap a photo of you at the station
- ☐ Visit the Durango Bike Project station (25 E 8th Ave unit B) on Clean Commute Day
 - Snap a photo of you at the station
- ☐ Visit the Boundary Hotel and Roll E-bike station (3030 Main Ave) on Clean Commute Day
 - Snap a photo of you at the station
- ☐ Visit the Durango Recreation Center station (2700 Main Ave) on Clean Commute Day
 - Snap a photo of you at the station
- ☐ Beautify your commute
 - Pick up and properly dispose of 3 pieces of trash along your commute route. Take a picture of all 3 and a picture of you putting them in a proper waste bin.
